

PLATE I

GEOLOGIC STRUCTURE OF THE ROSEBUD COAL BED IN THE COLSTRIP AREA, SOUTHEASTERN MONTANA

December 1976
 Montana Bureau of Mines and Geology

EXPLANATION

Contour showing altitude, in feet, of the base of the Rosebud coal bed. Contour interval is 50 feet. Datum is mean sea level. Interpretations based upon subsurface data.

- Outcrop of Rosebud coal bed.
- Area where Rosebud coal has burned.
- Mined areas.
- Fault, dashed where inferred.

SCALE

